BMO Harris Bank N.A. (the “Bank”)

information and disclosure for mutual funds

Your account at the Bank may be invested in shares of mutual funds. Some of these mutual funds are related to the Bank because an affiliate of the Bank sponsors, administers, or advises them. This document describes how the Bank manages mutual fund fees to ensure you do not pay twice for transactions.

How these relationships work
Here are our affiliate relationships:
- BMO Asset Management Corp. (“BMO AM”) is the investment adviser to BMO Funds, Inc. and BMO LGM Frontier Markets Equity Fund (collectively, the “BMO Funds”).
- BMO AM and other affiliates of the Bank act as subadvisers to certain BMO Funds, certain Eaton Vance Funds, certain Aston Funds and certain Laudus Funds (collectively “Proprietary Funds”). The chart below shows these relationships.
- BMO Financial Corp. (“BFC”), the parent company of the Bank and of BMO AM, owns more than 10% of the common shares of Virtus Investment Partners, Inc., the sponsor of the Virtus Funds.

Managing fees where there are multiple relationships
The Bank and its affiliates charge fees for their services to the Proprietary Funds. When you hold these types of investments, you pay these service fees indirectly through ownership in the fund.

The Bank also charges a fee for its services which is paid directly from your account. This fee includes investment services for accounts, other than custody accounts. You may have a subaccount with an investment adviser who receives fees for managing the subaccount. The investment advisor may be an affiliate of the Bank. To avoid charging you twice for investment management fees (once directly and once indirectly) when your account holds Proprietary Funds your account receives a credit depending on the type of account as follows:
- Bank acts as trustee, executor, conservator, personal representative, guardian or trustee or investment fiduciary of retirement account: the Bank pays back (by crediting your account) the investment advisory and subadvisory fees paid by the Proprietary Funds to the Bank’s affiliates so you are not charged twice for investment services.
- Bank acts as investment manager: the Bank pays back (by crediting your account) the investment advisory and subadvisory fees paid by non-money market Proprietary Funds to the Bank’s affiliates, so you are not charged twice for investment services.
- When Bank acts only as custodian: the Bank’s fee paid from the account is not for investment management so you are not charged twice if the account holds Proprietary Funds.

Who provides services
This chart shows Bank affiliates and services they provide for BMO Funds, Eaton Vance Funds, Aston Funds or Laudus Funds as of June 30, 2015.

Other mutual fund fees

The Bank and its affiliates provide additional services to the BMO Funds as listed in this paragraph. BMO AM (and not the BMO Funds) compensates the Bank and its affiliates for the following services: Taplin, Canida & Habacht, LLC (subadviser); Moneyg, Inc. (subadviser); Pyrford International Limited (subadviser); and Lloyd George Management (Europe) Limited (subadviser). BMO AM’s payments to these affiliates do not increase the aggregate expenses and fees of the BMO Funds. However, the Bank and its affiliates provide services to the BMO Funds as follows, for which they are compensated by the BMO Funds themselves: the Bank (custodian for domestic funds); BMO AM (adviser, administration, and shareholder services); and BMO Investment Distributors, LLC (distributor). These fees are included in the aggregate expenses and fees of the BMO Funds, as shown in the applicable prospectuses for the BMO Funds. Bank affiliates that act as subadvisers to the Eaton Vance Funds, the Aston Funds, and the Laudus Funds are paid by the third party advisers of those Funds.

The enclosed charts show the fees and expenses for mutual funds held by clients’ discretionary accounts where a Bank affiliate serves as an adviser or subadviser to the fund for Class I, Class A, and Class Y shares of certain BMO Funds. The annual fees collected from non-affiliated mutual funds for 12b-1/distribution, shareholder servicing, recordkeeping, or other miscellaneous services generally range from 0 to 100 basis points (i.e., 0.00 to 1.00 percent of assets per year). Specific information about the fees and expenses of each mutual fund investment is in the applicable mutual fund prospectus.

Mutual funds have financial risks

Investing in mutual funds involves risk, including the possibility of losing your principal. The Bank, BFC, and affiliates of BFC do not endorse or guarantee your mutual fund shares, and these shares are not deposits or debts owed by any of them. Mutual fund shares are not federally insured or guaranteed by the FDIC, the Federal Reserve Board, or any other government agency.

More information

Your account administrator or portfolio manager can answer questions about fees the Bank and its affiliates receive from BMO Funds, Eaton Vance Funds, Aston Funds or Laudus Funds, as well as revenue sharing arrangements with other mutual funds or their sponsors, or 12b-1 fees received from them.

(1) The BMO LGM Frontier Markets Equity Fund is a closed-end management investment company established as a Delaware statutory trust. The Fund shares are not redeemable each business day. Instead, at the end of each calendar quarter, the Fund offers to purchase between 5% and 25% of its outstanding shares, as determined by the Funds Board of Directors.

(2) This is a repurchase fee, which will be payable to the Fund to offset repurchase expenses.

(3) “Management Fees” have been restated to reflect current fees, effective June 1, 2015.

(4) “Other Expenses” have been restated to reflect current fees, effective June 1, 2015.

(5) Acquired Fund Fees and Expenses represent the pro rata expense indirectly incurred by the Fund as a result of its investment in other investment companies. Please see the prospectus for more information.

(6) Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses After Fee Waivers and Expense Reimbursements reflect contractual fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements made by BMO Asset Management Corp. (Adviser). The Adviser may not terminate these fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements prior to December 31, 2015 (December 31, 2016 for BMO LGM Large-Cap Value and BMO LGM Large-Cap Growth) without the consent of the Board of Directors, unless terminated due to the termination of the investment advisory agreement. Without these contractual waivers and/or expense reimbursements, the returns would have been lower. Please see the prospectus for more information.

(7) The management fee disclosed is a blended fee based on the Fund’s total assets as of August 31, 2014 and the Fund’s management fee breakpoint schedule under the investment advisory agreement. Please see the prospectus for more information.

You should consider a Fund’s investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing. For a prospectus, which contains this and other information about the BMO Funds, call 1-800-580-3863. Please read it carefully before investing.

An investment in the Money Market Funds is neither insured nor guaranteed by the FDIC or any other government agency. Although the Money Market Funds seek to preserve the value of your investment at $1 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in these funds.

Keep in mind that as interest rates rise, bond prices fall. This may have an adverse effect on a Fund’s portfolio. Funds that have a higher concentration of investments in a specific industry or sector may be subject to a higher degree of market risk than funds whose investments are more diversified. Foreign investing involves special risks due to factors such as increased volatility, currency fluctuation and political uncertainties. All investments involve risk, including the possible loss of principal.

BMO Asset Management Corp. is the investment adviser to the BMO Funds. BMO Investment Distributors LLC is the distributor. BMO Funds are not marketed or sold outside of the United States. For more information on the BMO Funds please visit www.bmofunds.com.

1. “Management Fees” have been restated to reflect the current fees, effective June 1, 2015.
2. “Other Expenses” are based on estimated amounts for the Fund’s current fiscal year.
3. “Other Expenses” have been restated to reflect current fees, effective June 1, 2015.
4. Acquired Fund Fees and Expenses represent the pro rata expense indirectly incurred by the Fund as a result of its investment in other investment companies.
5. Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses after Fee Waivers and Expense Reimbursements reflect contractual fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements made by BMO Asset Management Corp. (Adviser). The Adviser may not terminate these fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements prior to December 31, 2015 (December 31, 2016 for BMO Large-Cap Value, BMO Large-Cap Growth, and BMO Alternative Strategies Fund) without the consent of the Board of Directors, unless terminated due to the termination of the investment advisory agreement. Without these contractual waivers and/or expense reimbursements, the Funds’ returns would have been lower. Please see the prospectus for more information.
6. “Other Expenses” are based on estimated amounts for the Fund’s current fiscal year because it is a new fund.
7. The management fee disclosed is a blended fee based on the Fund’s total assets as of August 31, 2014 and the Fund’s management fee breakpoint scheduled under the investment advisory agreement. Please see the prospectus for more information.

You should consider a Fund’s investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing. For a prospectus, which contains this and other information about the BMO Funds, call 1-800-580-3863. Please read it carefully before investing.

An investment in the Money Market Funds is neither insured nor guaranteed by the FDIC or any other government agency. Although the Money Market Funds seek to preserve the value of your investment at $1 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in these funds.

Keep in mind that as interest rates rise, bond prices fall. This may have an adverse effect on a Fund’s portfolio. Funds that have a higher concentration of investments in a specific industry or sector may be subject to a higher degree of market risk than funds whose investments are more diversified. Foreign investing involves special risks due to factors such as increased volatility, currency fluctuation and political uncertainties. All investments involve risk, including the possible loss of principal.

BMO Asset Management Corp. is the investment adviser to the BMO Funds. BMO Investment Distributors LLC is the distributor. BMO Funds are not marketed or sold outside of the United States. For more information on the BMO Funds please visit www.bmofunds.com.
